

The life and purpose of Jesus is, in large part, summed up in Galatians 4:4-5

- Jesus was made of a woman and made under the law.
  - Made, not born.
    - The Greek γινομαι [ginomai] is “to be” or “to become.”
    - It is used in the same form in Luke 18:24.
    - It harmonizes perfectly with the previous statement that God sent forth his Son.
    - If the Son was sent forth then he was not born of a woman or born under the law, but made to be of a woman and under the law.
  - Of a woman...this was a Messianic criterion, based on Genesis 3:15.
  - Under the law...this is a reference to the Torah, or Mosaic Law.
    - This is as fundamentally important to our salvation as Jesus being made of a woman.
      - To imagine that Jesus was free from the law is to make things up!
      - There are those who make such argument because they believe that we are not under the law but that we should obey Jesus in every regard.
      - Without an obedience to the Law, Jesus would not have been the perfect sacrifice, the Lamb of God who taketh away the sins of the world.
    - This is fundamentally important to interpreting the commands of Jesus for our lives today.
      - Jesus taught a strict obedience to the law for all of his followers.
      - If we follow the example and commands of Jesus completely, we will be living as if we were under the law.
      - Jesus taught the way he taught because He was a man under the law teaching men and women who were also under the law.

- He came to redeem them that were under the law (v. 5)
  - Redeem is the Greek word ἐξαγοράζω [ekagorazo]. The agora is the market and ek is “out of,” so he came to purchase them “out of the market.”
  - The Torah was based on a compensation system.
    - If an animal was injured, it would be replaced with an animal of equal value.
    - If a tithe wasn’t paid, it would be paid later with a 20% interest.
    - The Levites were a replacement for the firstborn who were not killed at the Passover.
    - The sacrifices were to buy atonement for sins.
      - Jesus came as the ultimate payment for sins, the propitiation.
- His redemption provides the adoption as sons (v. 5).
  - No longer under the law, now mankind is able to have a full and free relationship with God.
  - Our sins have been fully paid for in Jesus Christ.

What is behind the works and words of Jesus?

- All of the miracles of Jesus were given as confirmation of his identity as the Jewish Messiah and promised redeemer. Isaiah 35:5-6
- All of the teachings of Jesus were to bring Israel to a point of acceptance of their Messiah, so that the Kingdom could be established - Luke 4:16-21

The life of Jesus was perfect, but not enough for salvation

- Jesus came to live a sinless life and die a sinner’s death.
- Both are essential to our salvation.

*Living He loved me,
Dying He saved me
Buried He carried
My sins far away!
Rising He justified
Freely forever
One day He’s coming,
Oh glorious day!*
